

the use of translator services offers regional radio listeners access to programming that would otherwise not be available. i would strongly recommend that LPMF NOT take priority over current FM translator service